DISPOSITION OF MANCHURIA.
It is understood to be the desire of the great powers that the disposition of Manchuria should go before the ministers at Pekin, and be finally determined by a joint agreement among the powers. Although no definite step has been taken in that direction, it is being discussed by foreign representatives in Washington, who fully expect that the plan will be adopted. Russia, it is expected, will be reluctant to agree to it. Attention has been directed to the question by reports that Russia had resumed direct negotiations with China concerning Manchuria, and also by Wednesday's cable dispatch saying that a Russian proclamation was about to be issued establishing New Chwang as a Russian port. As to the report that Russia will proclaim New Chwang to be a Russian port, it is pointed out in diplomatic circles that New Chwang is a treaty port, and as such is open to the commerce of the world under the existing tariff regulations with China and to foreign merchants there. These rights of trade could not be taken away in the opinion of diplomatic officials, by a Russian proclamation unless the powers had previously given their consent thereto; however, there has been no question from Russia or China as yet as to the status of New Chwang as a treaty port.

AN INTRIGUE IN SULTAN'S HAREM.
A dispatch from Constantinople says: Owing to the mystery and secrecy enshrouding all occurrences in the Yildiz Palace, the real cause of the recent fire there has only now transpired.

The incident was the result of an intrigue by the ladies of the harem against the lady treasurer of the harem of whom they wished to be rid. At an investigation of the conspirators, a negro placed materials for a conflagration in corridor of the palace, and lighted them under condition to cast suspicion on the treasurer. The desired result was attained. The lady treasurer was not only dismissed, but she was imprisoned in the palace. Her relatives are influential, and have been endeavoring to obtain her release. There have been numerous arrests in consequence of the attempt at incendiarism, and some of the women have been subjected to torture in the hope of extracting confessions from them. The Sultan first believed the conspiracy was directed against himself. The fire did not occur in a room adjoining that used by the Sultan, as first reported, but in a corridor quite a long way from his Majesty's apartments.
